DECARCERAL STUDENT ORGANIZING COALITION

ANOTHER WORLD IS POSSIBLE

ORGANIZERS ROUNDTABLE

We will gather with local organizers and practitioners to learn about criminal justice reform, decarceration, and abolition. Learn how to contribute to these projects in New York state, in the city of Rochester, and in our campus community.

JAN 19

Q 5 PM

HAWKINS-CARLSON

LIBRARY

Center for Community Alternatives | Citizen

Action | Elders and Allies | The M.K, Gandhi Institute

of the Community Alternatives | Citizen

Action | Elders and Allies | The M.K, Gandhi Institute

of the Community Alternatives | Citizen

Action | Elders and Allies | The M.K, Gandhi Institute

of the Community Alternatives | Citizen

Action | Elders and Allies | The M.K, Gandhi Institute

of the Community Alternatives | Citizen

Action | Elders and Allies | The M.K, Gandhi Institute

of the Community Alternatives | Citizen

Action | Elders and Allies | The M.K, Gandhi Institute

of the Community Alternatives | Citizen

Action | Elders and Allies | The M.K, Gandhi Institute

of the Community Alternatives | Citizen

Action | Elders and Allies | The M.K, Gandhi Institute

of the Community Alternatives | Citizen

Action | Elders and Allies | The M.K, Gandhi Institute

of the Community Alternatives | Citizen

Office | Release Aging People in Prison | VOCAL-NY

Cosponsored by the Center for Community Engagement, the Central New York Humanities Corridor, the Department of Religion and Classics, and the Rochester Education Justice Initiative