

PREVIEW the application questions for the Fall 2023 Writing Retreat (October 13-15) at the Minnowbrook Conference Center in Blue Mountain Lake, NY

Review the Call for Applications on the Corridor website before applying online.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: Monday, January 31, 2023

Yes, I am a tenure-line faculty member who has not yet attended a Corridor Minnowbrook writing retreat (mark status below):

- untenured at present
- untenured but anticipated by Summer 2023
- tenured
- No, I am non-tenure track faculty / staff. (skip to survey-end)

Full Name:

Email Address:

Home Institution:

Department(s) + Field(s):

Current Title/Position(s):

Select any/all categories below that apply to you (click any):

- BIPOC faculty
- LGBTQ+ faculty
- First-generation faculty (first in your family to attend college)
- Women faculty
- Other (explain)

Are you a faculty member who currently or historically has been in heave service or administrative roles? [If you select "Yes" above, briefly describe your administrative and service responsibilities]

Upload a PDF version of your CV (Please use the naming format: LastName_FirstName_CV.pdf.)

Describe the piece of writing you plan to work on at the retreat and clearly delineate how this work engages with/contributes to the humanities, broadly conceived. (250-300 words)

Describe why the retreat would benefit this stage of your project, as well as this stage of your career, particularly amidst service contributions and obligations. (250-300 words)

Is there a particular topic or writing challenge you would like to see addressed at this or future writing retreats? (250-300 words)

Acknowledgements for sign-off before submission

* Confirm that you are fully vaccinated at the time of application.

* Acknowledge that additional health protections may be required to participate in this retreat.

* Yes, if my proposal is accepted, I understand that:

- The Corridor will provide full tuition, meals, and lodging during the retreat;
- I will cover the costs of travel to Minnowbrook Conference Center in Blue Mountain Lake, NY;
- I will participate in the retreat for its entire duration (arriving by noon on Friday, Oct. 13, departing early afternoon on Sunday, Oct. 15).
- I understand that the workshops and consultations will be offered remote-format. [NOTE: this helps the Corridor maximize slots for awardees.]

Applicants will receive an emailed copy of their application upon submitting.