

The Creighton Club

New York State Philosophical Association

Centennial Conference Program
Friday April 8 - Saturday April 9, 2022
Colgate University
Hamilton, NY

Friday, April 8

- 4:30 PM Check-in for those who have arrived
Lawrence Hall Lobby - Outside Lawrence 105
- 5:00 PM Nicole Hassoun (Binghamton University)
The Minimally Good Life Account of What We Owe to Others and Can Demand as a Basic Minimum
Lawrence Hall 105 (Sponsored by the Colgate Philosophy Department)
- 7:45 PM Dinner for Conference Speakers and Organizers (dinner for others is on their own)
Hamilton Inn

Saturday, April 9

- 8:30 AM Bagels and Coffee
Lawrence Hall 105
- 9:00 AM Louise Antony (University of Massachusetts Amherst)
Why Concepts Cannot, Should Not, and Need Not be Engineered
Lawrence Hall 105
- 10:30 AM Break
- 10:45 AM Earl Conee (University of Rochester)
Against Absurdity
Lawrence Hall 105
- 12:15 PM Conference Lunch
Lawrence Hall 105
- 1:30 PM Graduate Student Parallel Sessions

Alex Horne (University of Cambridge)
The Self Improvement Machine
Comments by Matt Paskell (Cornell University)
Lawrence Hall 203

Thiago Xavier de Melo (Syracuse University)
Naive Positionalism and Relative Discenability
Comments by Rafael Perez (University of Rochester)
Lawrence Hall 209

Hannah Winckler-Olick (Cornell University)
de Beauvoir on Value Creation as Complicity
Comments by Huzeyfe Demirtas (Syracuse University)
Lawrence Hall 210

3:00 PM Break

3:15 PM Jessica Moss (New York University)
Aristotle's Knowledge
Lawrence Hall 105

4:45 PM Break (and Creighton Club Business Meeting in Lawrence Hall 105)

5:00 PM Ted Sider (Rutgers University)
3D in High-D
Lawrence Hall 105

7:00 PM Conference Dinner for all Attendees
O'Connor Campus Center 135 Media Lounge

Sunday April 10

Morning Hike on local trails (if there is sufficient interest and weather permitting)