

Hybrid Webinar Lecture + Discussion with Dr. Marc Stein, on Queer Public History Today

Please submit interpreting requests to myAccess.rit.edu.

This is a hybrid event featuring a webinar lecture and discussion with Dr. Marc Stein, President of the Organization of American Historians, on Queer Public History Today.

Those joining in person at RIT's Alumni House will enjoy lunch with the lecture, which will be followed by a presentation by Dr. Tamar Carroll of the RIT Department of History about the forthcoming exhibition, "Picturing Equality: The Lambda Network at Kodak," on view at George Eastman Museum (GEM) June 27-Nov. 8, 2026, and related public programming that will take place this summer and fall at GEM.

For more information
+ to register

Thurs., May 14, 2026

11:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m.

Joseph M. Lobozzo Alumni House

RIT

College of Liberal Arts
Department of History

Central New York Humanities Corridor

HUMANITIES COMMUNITIES
Central New York Humanities Corridor